Paper bag puppets are so much fun! These are realistic enough without being scary for the younger students. He had so much fun with these! The teacher can use it as a visual for the serpent talking to Eve. These are great for any lesson with a snake! The snake on the right is easier to cut out. The snake on the left has the tongue out and flaps around when it is 'talking'.

For your kids Sunday school activities and Bible study lessons, use the idea of puppets. Paper bag puppets can be made into animals or biblical characters. They work well with stories featuring several characters, and students can be asked to focus in on a particular character and create a puppet likeness. Once all the puppets are made, you can act out a drama of the Bible story in a puppet show.

Scarlett here has made the clown paper bag puppet. We attached the parts of the face to the bag, then attached the bag to the roll. The collar was then glued over the masking tape and the buttons down the roll. We didn't worry about the arms (I couldn't find a good place to put them). Anyway, this craft was quite a hit!"

Begin a lifetime of Scripture memory and love for God's Word with your family! The Topical Memory System has been helping people memorize Scripture for decades, and it will help you and your kids too! The tried-and-true methods of the TMS are the foundation of this fun game. Inside you'll find tear-out memory verse cards (with colorful illustrations) for use in multiple games. Complementing the games is a devotional-style guide for families that helps with understanding the context of each verse in the larger picture of God's story. There are also discussion questions that provide opportunities to go deeper in Scripture with every verse. Kids will have fun playing the memory games as their faith and understanding of God's Word grows. Families can follow the 18-week schedule provided or go at their own pace. Start with the beginner-level matching game and move up to the advanced levels when the kids are ready. With 36 verses to shuffle through, every game is a new challenge! Also included is a checklist to track memorization progress and a kid-friendly glossary for difficult Bible terms. The cards are in two translations: NIV and The Message.
