Written in an engaging style that avoids unnecessary legal jargon, this text offers the A/AS level student, the new law undergraduate and postgraduates taking the CPE, a concise and sound foundation for further and more detailed study. It is designed to stimulate thought on the purposes, the making and practice of law and poses the question: is the English Legal System fit for purpose in the modern world? Presented in a 4-part structure, the text opens with an examination of the purposes and functions of law and the law-making process, followed by an overview of the institutional framework of the system.
