If it's from another agency, such as a state tax department, you'll need to call that office for an explanation. If the letter is from the Department of the Treasury Bureau of the Fiscal Service, these notices are often sent when the IRS takes (offsets) some or part of your tax refund to cover another, non-IRS debt. The Bureau of the Fiscal Service only facilitates the transfers - it won't have information about your IRS account or where the money is being sent.
