thematic indexes and helpful maps in this annual update, travelers can create a memorable journey. Our famous one, two and three stars identify establishments serving the highest quality cuisine - taking into account the quality of ingredients, the mastery of technique and flavors, the levels of creativity and, of course, consistency. In addition, the Bib Gourmand symbol (also known as the inspectors' favorites) highlights restaurants offering good quality at a good value. Bib Gourmands are awarded for great food (under HK$300). - Around 20% of restaurants are basic local food stalls, with a specially designed symbol representing a "simple shop serving local food at affordable prices." Some have even earned stars.- The guide's restaurants represent 50 cuisines and 21 styles of regional Chinese cooking, including Shanghainese, Pekingese, Sichuan, Hakkanese, Hang Zhou, Cantonese, and Chiu Chow.- Inspector picks of popular street food offer visitors a taste of local life.- Special symbols call attention to such features as interesting wine lists, interesting views, and counter restaurants.- Hotel selection presents variety of choices ranging from intimate townhouses to grand palaces.- Language is no problem: guide is in English and Chinese.- Restaurants and hotels are organized alphabetically for ease of reference; multiple color photos & description convey an in-depth picture of each establishment.- Detailed color maps show locations for easy orientation.- Only the best are included: travelers can feel confident in their choices.

Hong Kong.

With culinary nationalism defined as a process in flux, as opposed to the limited concept of national cuisine, the contributors of this book call for explicit critical comparisons of cases of culinary nationalism among Asian regions, with the intention of recognizing patterns of modern culinary development. As a result, the formation of modern cuisine is revealed to be a process that takes place around the world, in different forms and periods, and not exclusive to current Eurocentric models. Key themes include the historical legacies of imperialism/colonialism, nationalism, the Cold War, and global capitalism in Asian cuisines; internal culinary boundaries between genders, ethnicities, social classes, religious groups, and perceived traditions/modernities; and global contexts of Asian cuisines as both nationalist and internationalist enterprises, and "Asia" itself as a vibrant culinary imaginary. The book, which includes a foreword from Krishnendu Ray and an afterword from James L. Watson, sets out a fresh agenda for thinking about future food studies scholarship.
