The answer is it depends. "My friend and I" would be the subject of the sentence whereas we say "my friend and me" when it is the object. For Example: John is going to meet my family and me today. (as object) My family and I are going to meet John today. (as subject) My cousins and I ran into Kate at the mall yesterday. Kate waited for me and my cousins at the mall yesterday. Similarly:

My Family And Friends. I believe that friends and family are the true cause of happiness. When you have friends and family, you have those who care for you. When you have them, you don't really need anything else. When you have a family and some really good friends, you know that they will always be there for you. You know that you can always count on them, and you definitely know that you can trust them with a secret or anything personal.
