Policing the Caribbean - Ben Bowling - Oxford University Press

In many parts of the world, defence forces, established to provide military force against foreign invasion and to provide aid to the civil power in times of unrest or civil emergency, are now working largely to a law enforcement agenda. In the Caribbean, for example, the army and hybrid military/policing agencies support the police on land, while the coastguard has extensive involvement in armed policing of territorial waters (Bowling, 2010). Border protection agencies including Customs ...
