Roger Baker and his co-translators have put us all in their debt. Everyone knows that Bernhard Riemann was one of the most important mathematicians of the 19th century, and that his influence has been considerable. Reading his papers, however, has been an option only for those who could read German.

About the Author(s) Roger Money-Kyrle (1898-1980) was an influential psychoanalyst particularly noted for his promotion and development of the ideas of Melanie Klein. He was analysed by Ernest Jones, by Freud and later by Klein. Initially his interest in psychoanalysis was stimulated in connection with his work in philosophy, anthropology, and the social sciences generally, but following his ...
