"The Jesus Style" by Gayle Erwin -- Session 1 of 4

Jesus' style isn't how we often think when we tell people we follow Him. Jesus' style was subtle and calm. He sacrificed all the time, not just at the end of His life. As God in the flesh, He had more right than any other human being to be propped up, respected and treated with dignity. He never sought such things and rarely received them.

The Jesus Style: Gayle D. Erwin, Richard C. Halverson --

"The chief means of resisting manipulation is humility - knowing who we really are and facing it. You can only serve by love. You can only love by choice. True love cannot be the result of decree, force or manipulation. Jesus always kept his strength to make loving choices. He calls us to make loving choices necessary to be the servant of all."
