Every person on Earth will one day stand before God and give an account of what they have done, whether it be good or evil, in addition to their acceptance or rejection of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as their personal Saviour. Whether or not you believe it, Jesus Christ is coming back again to judge the world for their iniquity. That's what God's prophets have said and His prophets have never been wrong! From a pre-millennial viewpoint, "Post Tribulation Rapture" evaluates the three major positions regarding the timing of the return of Jesus Christ to Earth in relation to the final seven years of man's history. Will there be signs of Christ's coming? Will everyone see Him coming? Does Christ return two more times? What is the "Day of the Lord"? Who are the "elect" people on Earth? When will the Antichrist be revealed? Is the return of Christ imminent? Who will populate the kingdom? What are the three main rapture positions? How do they differ? Who is the restrainer? "Post Tribulation Rapture" includes fourteen detailed charts and an extensive glossary/dictionary defining the most commonly used phrases and terms in Bible prophecy.

It is high time to prepare for the days ahead as Satan prepares for his onslaught on the church through the coming Antichrist. Are you prepared to face the Antichrist and meet Christ after the tribulation or are you hoping for a secret rapture that is never mentioned in the whole of God's word? Read what God's word really says about the rapture and the days that will soon be upon us.

The rapture of the church is perhaps the most awaited hour of Christianity and perhaps one of the most disputed events. The irony is that scripture never mentions the word rapture but the event is accounted for in other language. It is referred to as the day of the Lord, the catching away, the resurrection, the second coming, and the gathering of the elect. It is the time when the Lord Jesus Christ will return to redeem His church out of this world. So, what is the mystery? What is the dispute? Like many things in scripture, the rapture is clouded in mystery. In the modern world, the events surrounding the rapture, to include the rapture itself, makes for great cinema and story. A picture of cataclysmic destruction and agony strike fear and anxiety in the heart of the hearer. Couple that with confusion to its timing and sequence in events leads to a misunderstanding of the times that Jesus said we are supposed to know. People like the shroud of mystery and inconclusive understanding. It tickles the ears of those who seek to have a divine revelation of these events and perpetuates the interests of the seemingly unknown. End time prophecy existed from the beginning and as we read throughout the Old Testament we find many scriptures that pertain to those times. Nearly one-third of the Bible discusses prophecy so its importance is significant. It seems that the Lord wanted us to know something. This is what He told His disciples. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe. (John 14:28-30) Jesus spoke of His ascension to Heaven and His return from Heaven, the rapture. He said that He tells us things before they happen so when they happen, we might believe. His disciples worried about His going away but He reassured them of His return and as we look at what Jesus said throughout His ministry, He was not shy about discussing His return. After studying the Word and prophecy for many years, I know this truth. There is no doubt as we see the world shaping up today that the events discussed throughout scripture are happening. The news headlines are saying the same thing that scripture foretold and it builds my faith. It is so clear that those who profess Christianity around the world see that the prophecies are coming to pass. There seems to be a stirring among believers that Jesus Christ is getting ready to return. There is no doubt in their minds of this truth. The problem is the confusion surrounding end time prophecies and there doesn't have to be. While writing this book I was very careful to use scripture and nothing but scripture. Anything outside of scripture is opinion. I don't want opinion. I want to know what God has to say about these topics. The popular view of end time events sees it one way and in their view it as absolute, even if the possible shows another way. I wrote this book on tribulation and rapture so we can see what the Bible says. I hope to show you truth through scripture. You must evaluate that for yourself through study and prayer. This work has much scripture in it because people tend not to look up references. I encourage you, have your Bible with this book and look it up for yourself. We can know certain things by looking at the scriptures and we can understand with confidence how things will happen, to a certain degree. That's why God gave it to us, so we can know the signs of the time.

Post-Trib: A Post-Tribulation View of the Second Coming is the author's view of the rapture of the church in a thoroughly researched presentation, free of dogmatism. The Bible doesn't answer every question regarding the Second Coming, but when we let it speak for itself, it answers more questions than many people realize. While not a criticism of other eschatological viewpoints, some disagreement is inevitable. Instead, it is an in-depth look at the post-tribulation view. This book is not meant to be a popularized version of prophecy, but a serious study of prophetic scripture pertaining to the Second Coming. Post-Trib includes both Old and New Testament scriptures regarding end time prophecy. It does not attempt to change people's minds, but to simply plant seeds.

Despite the popular theology of our day, Christians should not expect to get out of experiencing the tribulation or the end times. Nowhere in the Bible does the Lord promise us this, say Michael Brown and Craig Keener, two leading, acclaimed Bible scholars. In fact, they say, Jesus promises us tribulation in this world. Yet this is no reason to fear. In this fascinating, accessible, and personal book, Brown and Keener walk you through what the Bible really says about the rapture, the tribulation, and the end times. What they find will leave you full of hope. God's wrath is not poured out on His people, and He will shield us from it--as he shielded Israel in Egypt during the ten plagues. So instead of taking comfort in what God hasn't promised, take comfort in the words of Jesus: He has overcome the world, and we live in his victory.

The rapture, or the belief that, at some point, Jesus' living followers will join him forever while others do not, is an important but contested doctrine among evangelicals. Scholars generally hold one of three perspectives on the timing of and circumstances surrounding the rapture, all of which are presented in Three Views on the Rapture. The recent prominence of a Pre-Wrath understanding of the rapture calls for a fresh examination of this important but contested Christian belief. Alan D. Hultberg (PhD, Trinity International University and professor of New Testament at Talbot School of Theology) explains the Pre-Wrath view; Craig Blaising (PhD, Dallas Theological Seminary and president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary) defends the Pre-Tribulation view; and Douglas Moo (PhD, University of St. Andrews and professor of New Testament at Wheaton College) sets forth the Post-Tribulation view. Each author provides a substantive explanation of his position, which is critiqued by the other two authors. A thorough introduction gives a historical overview of the doctrine of the rapture and its effects on the church. The interactive and fair-minded format of the Counterpoints series allows readers to consider the strengths and weaknesses of each view and draw informed, personal conclusions.

This book explores three views on the Rapture--Pre; Mid; and Post-Tribulation.
