The Seasons of the Soul by Hermann Hesse - Goodreads

"Seasons of the Soul can be helpful for any Christian, but particularly for those who are relatively new in the journey and are experiencing the 'disorientations' that Demarest describes. Understanding that difficult experiences are normal parts of every Christian's lived experience, used by God to deepen our relationship with Him, will bring hope, encouragement, and direction for those who might otherwise give up, concluding that God has abandoned them."

Home - The Seasonal Soul Like an astrologer uses the stars & the planets, I use the seasons as a tool to understand the prevalent energy & how it influences our lives. Just as everything in nature has their stages of growth & evolution throughout the year - we, also, have our own stages of growth & evolution that are possible each season.

The Seasons of the Soul "The excessive emphasis on the fast-paced instant way of life is undoubtedly the most dangerous enemy of joy." The exquisite The Seasons of the Soul is a carefully selected anthology of Hermann Hesse's (1877 - 1962) poetry translated into English and illuminatingly introduced by Ludwig Max Fischer, professor of German and comparative mythology.

The Seasons of the Soul - The Examined Life

The author describes the four seasons of the soul and what the soul experiences in each season along with the temptations and trials that accompany it. The author also offers little suggestions of how to conduct oneself so as to prepare the soul for the next season. The greater your self-knowledge, the more sense this book will make.
